

SPOTLIGHT ON MARYLAND-BREDS

This month we bring you a special "all Thoroughbred" Maryland-bred edition in honor of the 146th running of the Preakness Stakes!

Bombero is by the Maryland sire Fresian Fire and out of Double Delta. Bred by Alison Farwell, Jr. and now owned by Liz Harrison, Bombero retired after six starts.

Corvus (Dance With Ravensx Tanca) ran second in the Maryland Million Nursery as a two-year old. Bred by Chanceland Farm, he earned over $129k for then owners Harrison, Manfuso and Voss. Corvus is now owned by Mimi Schmitz.

Greek Dancer was bred and raced by Marathon Farms. Currently owned by Brien J. Miller, this 2009 Thoroughbred is by Greek Sun and out of Capote's Niner.

Lou's Alfire was bred by Martin Bernstein and is now owned by Jessica Hammond. He is by Friesan Fire and out of I'm A Lou Lou.

GRC Photo

High Noon Lute (Midnight Lute x Memories of Mystic) was bred by Dark Hollow Farm. He now is enjoying his second career with Erica Gregg as an event horse.

GRC Photo

Wasabi Monster is a 2004 mare by Whiskey Bottom and out of Meadow Monster. Bred and raced by David H. Butts, she is now owned by Victoria J. Willis and has evented through Preliminary as well as competed in dressage through Third Level.

Katie Marquette now owns the 2012 gelding It-sallaboutthebens and mainly foxhunts with him. "Ben" was bred by Sabrina Moore by the stallion Outflanker and out of Gemston'es Jewel.

Chandler Willett

Don't forget to send your Maryland-bred photos to editor@equiery.com.

Emily Deutsch's Moneybuck was bred by Lisa Skiffington and Anthony Warren-der. The 2000 foxhunting gelding is by Tamayaz and out of Aldie.