

SPOTLIGHT ON MARYLAND-BREDS

An American Girl is by the Maryland Thoroughbred stallion Salute the Truth and out of Olney Emmy Lou. Owned by Sarah Kane, George Scott Waters competed the mare in eventing for the past eight years. The mare was recently retired from competition to transition to life as a broodmare.

The six-year-old Oldenburg stallion Saint Sanders Caspian was bred by Gabrielle Cottone. He is by Saint Sandro and out of GNF Crescendo*/ and is currently owned by Krista Child.

Silhouette is an Oldenburg by Scimitar and out of Roulette. He is owned by Elena Victoria and was bred by Kathleen Jackson.

The Oldenburg mare Cover Girl is by Contucci and out of Blackberry Brandy. The dressage horse is owned by Natalie DiBerardinis and bred by Janice Barnes.

This super cute filly called Gigi at the barn is by Grand Galaxy Win out of Hofrat. Owned by Emmaline Count and bred by Nancy Holowesko, her registered names is La Loire.

The Oldenburg, Illusionist LDS, bred and owned by Alexandria Wilcox, is by Innverness and out of Lantina.

The Quarter Horse Mr Dirt Devel is by MR Spins Doctor and is bred and owned by Bar M Performance Horses.

Rebel Yell (Jockey Club name: Louvre) is a Thoroughbred by Louis Quarze and out of Aunt Louise. The 2011 gelding was bred by Richard Blue, Jr. and is currently owned by Jennifer and Brian Green.

Don't forget to send your Maryland-bred photos to editor@equiery.com.

GRC Photo